WELCOME!

This booklet contains the schedule of events for the entire Orientation Week. Make sure that you read it carefully and that you don’t lose it! If you lose your booklet, please purchase another copy at the Orientation table in the Cohon Center lobby.

Important Symbols - A Guideline

Wrist Band - You need to wear your black/white wristband all week. Replacement cost for a new one is $10 to be purchased at the Orientation Table in the Cohon Center lobby.

Student ID - This symbol indicates that you must have a Carnegie Mellon student ID to participate in the event.

Activities Board - The Activities Board coordinates a wide variety of events to entertain and enrich the life of the campus community. The events represent a variety of topics and genres, and all the committees work together to present a broad range of events for the campus throughout the year.

Late Night - The Late Night logo designates events sponsored by the Student Activities Late Night Program. Late Night offers a diverse array of free events on select Friday and Saturday evenings in the Cohon Center from 9 p.m. - 1 a.m. Hosted by Student Organizations and the Office of Student Activities, there is always something to do.

Visit: www.cmu.edu/latenight.

Pittsburgh Connections - Through a generous grant from the R.K. Mellon Foundation, CMU students are offered discounted opportunities to engage in a wide variety of outdoor recreational activities located off-campus. Helping students develop and maintain a physically active lifestyle and connect to the Pittsburgh region, this program provides exciting recreational activities to students throughout the school year.

Green Leaf - This symbol indicates events and organizations that are committed to sustainability and environmental awareness.

Dining Information

All meals will have vegan and vegetarian selections. If you have arranged for a special dietary need related to a medical condition or food allergy, your meal will be labeled and identified as a Special Dining Order and will be available in Wiegand Gymnasium. Please see your OC or RA for assistance or ask a member of the Dining Staff in Wiegand Gymnasium.

DineXtra dollars are better than cash! If you run out of meal blocks or FLEX dollars, DineXtra is better than cash or credit when eating on campus and at our off-campus partners because you receive a bonus value of up to 10% of the amount added. The bonus is 1% for $100, 2% for $200, and so on up to 10% for $1,000!

Dining Services has a Nutrition App! Download it today and hold information about menus, nutrition facts, ingredients and food allergens for dining locations across campus right in the palm of your hand! SEARCH “CMU Nutrition” in the Apple App store and “Carnegie Mellon Nutrition” in Google Play.

The Tartan Express is Carnegie Mellon’s first-ever food truck, serving delicious Asian fare in the heart of CMU’s campus in the Legacy Plaza. Follow @TartanExpress for specials throughout the year!

Dining Services welcomes CMU’s newest Tartans and is always here to help with any questions you have. Contact us at 412-268-2139 or dining@andrew.cmu.edu.

Stay connected! You can find Dining Services hours, locations, menus, specials, news, and more at:

CMU Washington Semester Program Info Session
Baker Hall 154R
Undergraduates from any course of study who would value firsthand policy experience are invited to apply to the Carnegie Mellon University Washington Semester Program, sponsored by the university’s Institute for Politics and Strategy. In this semester-long program, students live, work and study in Washington, D.C., coming into direct contact with political, business and community leaders and learning about the most pressing policy issues of the day. Students earn 48 units for the CMU/WSP, interning three days per week in any sector or field of interest within Washington, D.C., while taking classes two days per week and in the evenings. The Institute for Politics and Strategy sponsors events and a policy forum in Washington for students participating in the program to further enrich their experience and enhance their understanding of how Washington functions as a hub of international and public policy decision making. Emily Half, ehalf@andrew.cmu.edu, academic program manager for the CMU/WSP, will present information about how to fit the CMU/WSP into your curricular plan.

3 - 4 p.m.
Diversity Dialogue
