IV. Officer Reports

- a. Community Standards –Joey Raudabaugh, Pi Kappa Alpha - jraudaba@andrew.cmu.edu

Sigma Nu is contesting their fine for missing JBoard training. The hearing will most likely occur next Thursday night.

- b. Community Relations – Chris Niessl, Sigma Tau Gamma - cniessl@andrew.cmu.edu

We are going to cosponsor a film with AB Films and we will be allowed to show a pro-Greek trailer. We will sponsoring AB films on April 24th.

- c. Recruitment Chairman – Damian Valdes, Sigma Phi Epsilon – dvaldes@andrew.cmu.edu

April 5th, there will be an information session for the incoming students about Greek Life. We'd like at least one person from each chapter to talk about Greek life.

- d. Housing Chairman – Ranjit (RJ) Korah, Kappa Delta Rho – rkorah@andrew.cmu.edu

House Corporation board meeting tonight.

Starting off the recycling program with an incentive by April 1st. There will be a monthly incentive for the house that collects the most bags. We will try to keep the incentives exciting and different.

House Manager Forum with Kim Abel and Lewis McCauley to talk about Green Practices after Spring Break.

Options for kitchen use in the summer are: getting an individual certified; hire a chef for the summer; utilize private vendors; have a communal kitchen.

All of the people on your submitted rosters have been pulled from the room draw. If you have any changes please contact Housing.

Lewis believes that he might have messed up the occupancy numbers so they may be changing for some of the houses.
